

Development Chef

Competitive salary

40 hours per week (Monday – Friday)

Ready Foods based in North Wales specialises in cooking a diverse range of menu options for a variety of food sectors from idea to market in the most efficient manner.

An opportunity has arisen for a Development Chef to join our Head Office in Caernarfon.

The role will be responsible for inspiring, designing, developing and evolving recipes and product ideas tapping into the latest food trends and culinary techniques. Working to customer briefs, meeting food values and cost and yield parameters, the role will develop excellent quality products and identify potential areas of growth. In addition, the role will work closely with the Production team to translate ideas into factory friendly, commercially viable products.

With previous experience of a food manufacturing environment, along with the foodservice and retail sectors the successful candidate will have excellent attention to detail, a professional approach at all times and able to adapt to situations as they occur, resolving problems and finding positive outcomes for all parties in a timely manner.

With strong inter-personal and communication skills including the ability to develop effective working relationships at all levels, the successful candidate will be able to work on their own initiative and as part of a team, be organised, with a can-do attitude, prioritise and organise work to meet deadlines and work under pressure.
