

Sales Executive

Competitive Salary

40 hours per week

Ready Foods based in North Wales specialises in cooking a diverse range of menu options for a variety of food sectors from idea to market in the most efficient manner.

An opportunity has arisen for an office-based Sales Executive to join our Head Office in Caernarfon.

The successful candidate will join the existing sales team to proactively identify new, existing, lapsed and lost sales opportunities to grow sales. The role will hold an allocated client base and will be responsible for keeping them up to date on all products and promotions together with managing the overall relationship to grow sales.

With experience of working within a fast-paced food business, the successful candidate will have a background in sales together with a current knowledge and understanding (or willingness to learn) of the current poultry business.

Strong inter-personal and communication skills including the ability to develop effective working relationships at all levels are key requirements, as are the ability to work on own initiative and as part of a team, be organised, with a can-do attitude, prioritise and organise work to meet deadlines and work under pressure. With excellent attention to detail and strong Microsoft skills the successful candidate will be able to demonstrate a professional approach at all times and able to adapt to situations as they occur, resolving problems and finding positive outcomes for all parties in a timely manner.
